1. On about 24 April 1955, individual officers and men of the Soviet air force unit stationed in Deutsch Wagram departed, apparently for new stations. It is believed that they have been transferred to Hungary.
2. A Soviet First Lieutenant stationed in Deutsch Wagram, who stated recently that he has been transferred to an airfield near Lake Balaton, Hungary, has already left with his family by truck.
3. The so-called "Braunhaus" on Belegardegasse in Deutsch Wagram, in which between 10 and 20 Soviet officers had been quartered, was found to be empty.
4. On 26 April, several Russian soldiers urgently demanded their laundry from an Austrian establishment, in Deutsch Wagram, saying that they were about to be transported to Hungary.
5. The following Soviet military transports were observed on the days indicated:
 - 15 April 1955: One 60-truck convoy left Austria for Hungary
 - 16 April 1955: 120 trucks carrying personnel and guns passed through Nickelsdorf on the way to Hungary
 - 17 April 1955: 240 trucks drove through Bruck towards Hungary
 - 19 April 1955: A large number of trucks carrying personnel passed through Bruck in the direction of Hungary.
